COLLIER WITH THEM

Alexander Accompanies Them---Question Of Coaling

The Maine and Alabama, whe they arrive here the early part of the coming week, will be accompanied b the collier Alexander, contrary t what was at first expected. Afte the captain in command of one of th vessels had written to the authoritie here that he would come alongsid the wharves in Honolulu to coal, was learned that the two had th coffier with them, and that the would in all probability coal from i However, it is still uncertain whether the ships will come alongside th wharves in this port.

The matter of the coaling is of the greatest interest at the naval statio here, and word of what is to be don is being anxiously awaited. It probable that something definite wi arrive by the Manchuria, which due in from the Coast on Monda morning, only a few hours ahead he special squadron

PRIORY GRADUATES
